LABUAN, Aug 7 (Bernama) -- Bank Islam Malaysia Bhd today presented business tithe amounting to RM120,979 to the Sabah Tithe Centre for distribution to deserving recipients.

The bank registered a pre-tax and pre-tithe profit of RM470.1 million last year.

The bank also presented tithes totalling RM12,000 to 30 Quran memorisation students from Madrasah Tahfiz Sri Merinding, Labuan and 45 deserving recipients from the Labuan Community Welfare Centre.

Bank Islam business director Khairul Kamaruddin said the tithe contribution was part of the bank's corporate social responsibility programme.

He said for this year, 405 orphans and needy students, 314 single mothers and senior citizens, 70 Muslim converts and Orang Asli, and nine organisations would receive tithes amounting to RM200,000 from Bank Islam.
