KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 7 (Bernama) -- Two envoys called on Dewan Negara (Senate) President Tan Sri Abu Zahar Ujang Tuesday.

They are Ambassador & Head of Delegation of the Delegation of the European Union to Malaysia, Vincent Piket, and Charge d'Affaires of the Embassy of Iran in Malaysia, Seyed Mohammad Reza Shams Dolatabadi.

At the separate meetings, held at Abu Zahar's office at Parliament House, the senate president and the visitors discussed current developments in bilateral relations. Also present was Dewan Negara deputy president Senator Doris Sohpia Brodi.

Abu Zahar and Piket, who is scheduled to complete his tour of duty in Malaysia at the end of this month, discussed various matters of mutual interest, including ways to improve the administration of Parliament.

"Piket shared his experience during the three years of service in Malaysia, saying that he was able to better understand Malaysia from the angle of European countries as a whole," Abu Zahar told reporters.
