PENDANG, Aug 9 (Bernama) -- Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Hajah Haminah today handed out Aidilfitri contributions to 150 orphans from the Pendang district, here, today.

The contributions were in the form of cash and school bags. Earlier, in her speech, Tuanku Haminah said the contributions were channelled through the Sultanah Haminah Orphans Foundation (YAYSH) which was set up by her a year ago.

"Before this, YAYSH had given out aid to orphans in Bandar Baharu and the Sik and Kubang Pasu districts. Now it has been extended to those in the Pendang district to lessen their burden.

"In life, we should not just be caring for the needs of our own family but to also help the less fortunate, to receive blessings in this world and the hereafter," the Queen said at the aid presentation held at Pendang Lake Resort, here, today.

Tuanku Haminah said whatever little a person gave, it meant a lot to the needy. The Queen also advised the orphans to study hard as a good education could give them a better future.
