YAN, Aug 11 (Bernama) -- Raja Permaisuri Agong Tuanku Hajah Haminah today presented contributions to 200 orphans in Yan district in conjunction with the upcoming Aidilfitri celebration.

The contributions from Sultanah Haminah Orphans Foundation comprised 'duit raya', school bags, food hampers and dates brought specially for the children from Istana Negara in Kuala Lumpur.

In her speech earlier, the queen also advised the children to study hard so that they would excel in their examinations.

"Allah will never change the destiny of a society until they change it themselves," she said while reminding the children that being orphans should not hamper them from creating their own success stories.

On the foundation, she said it had organised many activities to help orphans and children of the poor since its establishment a year ago.

"The foundation has also managed to organise its first anniversary and raise fund, especially from generous donors, which had enabled it to carry out more charitable activities to help those in need," she added.
