PUTRAJAYA, July 31 (Bernama) -- The government will always support an effort to turn Malaysia into the world's second biggest Quran printing centre after Saudi Arabia, said Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

Describing it as a noble effort, the prime minister said the effort should be pursued to promote the sacred writings of Islam revealed by Allah.

"I am willing to give my cooperation and support to ensure that the goal will become a reality," he said when launching the Quran and Lafziyyah Translation (Perkata) published by Restu Foundation here Tuesday.

Najib said he hoped the Restu Foundation's effort to turn the country into a world-class Quran printing centre would be blessed.

Printed in four colours, the Quran and Lafziyyah Translation, which is priced at RM90 a copy, carries a simple interpretation of Quranic verses.
