KUALA LUMPUR, July 31 (Bernama) -- The Indian government is offering Indian descents in Malaysia to participate in a familiarisation programme on the art, culture, heritage, history, social and economic development of India.

The Indian High Commision here said in a statement today that the four-week "Study India Programme" is open for those in the age group of between 18 to 26, whereby participants are required to attend courses at selected institutions and conduct field visits.

The programme would be held from Sept 25 to Oct 23 and those interested could log on to www.indianhighcommision.com.my/sip.php for application forms and details, the statement added.
