BEAUFORT, July 31 (Bernama) -- The Kembara Merdeka Jalur Gemilang (KMJG) Ramadan 2012 apart from bringing the message of merdeka, is aimed at reaching out to the people to extend assistance, said Information Department Director-General Datuk Ibrahim Abdul Rahman.

The programme in Sabah, organised by the Ministry of Information, Communications and Culture was led by the State Information Department.

The main mission of the programme was to encourage the flying of the Jalur Gemilang among the people in conjunction with the nation's 55th national day.

Last night a breaking of fast was held to welcome the KMJG convoy at Kampung Pilajau Mosque, Kota Klias near here.

The ceremony was officiated by the Sabah State Ministry of Infrastructure Development political secretary and Beaufort Umno deputy chief Isnin Aliasneh.
