KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 1 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak urged tertiary students who have gained entrance into institutions of higher learning (IHL) to make full use of the opportunity to excel academically.

He also advised them to cultivate innovation and creativity and instill a sense of patriotism.

"May all of you continue to excel academically and evolve into the young successors who'll inherit the nation's leadership in the future," he posted on his 1Malaysia blog, to the new IHL intakes for 2012.

Najib said the country's success since 1957 was not built overnight but achieved through the continuous sacrifice and efforts of the government since independence.

Congratulating the students who were embarking on their higher studies, he described the milestone as a historic episode in their lives.

"I wish all of you the most sincere congratulations on this achievement and also to your parents, who must be very happy at this moment.

"Let us all carve a better future for everyone," he concluded.
