KOTA BAHARU, Sept 1 (Bernama) -- Opposition leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim said on Saturday allocation of seats to be contested by parties in the opposition coalition for the upcoming 13th general election was about completed.

He said they would negotiate based on consensus should there be additional suggestions.

"We will discuss if there are new suggestions. In Kelantan it is complete, while Penang is almost done," he told reporters after speaking at a programme here.

On the implementation of Hudud law, Anwar said implementation at the national-level depended on amendments to the Federal Constitution.
