SHAH ALAM, Sept 2 (Bernama) -- Barisan Nasional (BN) and Umno members, particularly, must change their mindset by accepting candidates decided by the party's top leadership to contest in the coming general election.

Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi said this was necessary to ensure BN's victory in the coming general election and with a more comfortable majority.

He said elements of sabotage such as those taking place during the previous general election should not be repeated and party interests should be above individual interests.

"We should accept the BN top leadership's choice of candidates who are capable of winning the elections to form the next state and federal governments.

"This is also aimed at getting two-thirds majority in Parliament," he told reporters after opening the Shah Alam Umno division delegates' meeting which was attended by 1,000 delegates, here, this evening.
