KOTA BELUD, Sept 2 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has approved an allocation of RM3 million for the construction of Sekolah Menengah Agama Rampayan Laut here.

The prime minister also launched the ground breaking ceremony of the school after attending Hari Raya open house jointly hosted by Speaker of Dewan Rakyat Tan Sri Pandikar Amin Mulia and United Sabah Bajau Organisation Sunday.

Earlier, Najib said the young generation were the country's future leaders who would have to ensure that Vision 2020 would become a reality.

"We only have eight years left before 2020 and we want to transform our country into a fully-developed nation. We don't want to do this half way.

"In a bid to achieve the target, we must show that we support the transformation agendas, we shouldn't be swayed and duped by the opposition's lies and sweet talk," he added.
