KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 4 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak congratulated Malaysian paralympic archer Hasihin Sanawi for winning a silver medal at the London Paralympic Games.

"Congratulations to archer Hasihin Sanawi for winning a silver medal in the London Paralympics!" he said in his latest tweet.

Yesterday, Hasihin was edged out by Italy's Oscar de Pellegrin in a nail-biting shoot-off after both were tied 5-5 in the men's individual recurve W1/W2 final at the Royal Artillery Barracks near London.

It was also Malaysia's first medal at the London Paralympics.

In London, Malaysia is represented by 23 athletes who are competing in eight sports, namely archery, athletics, cycling, table tennis, powerlifting, swimming, wheelchair fencing and sailing.
