KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 5 (Bernama) -- Former prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad has described the late Tan Sri Hamzah Abu Samah as a well-organised and honest person.

"He was in the cabinet when I was prime minister. He was a good minister, and never failed to give me a report or to update me on any of his visits," said Dr Mahathir.

He said the late Hamzah was also an honest man in carrying out his duties in the government and when he was the Olympic Council of Malaysia (OCM) president.

Dr Mahathir was met by reporters after attending the burial of the late Hamzah in the compound of the National Mosque, here, Wednesday.
