KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 5 (Bernama) -- Umno with a force of 3.2 million members, is capable of ensuring a two-third majority win for Barisan Nasional (BN), if there is solidarity among members when facing the 13th general election, Federal Territory Umno liaison secretary, Datuk Syed Ali Alhabshee said Wednesday.

He said there should be solidarity among members in supporting candidates selected by the party leadership, to contest in the general election, and willingness to work hard to secure victory for the party.

"As party members, our loyalty is to Umno and not because we want important posts. Our priority is to ensure victory for the party," he told Bernama today.

He was asked to comment on a statement by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak last Sunday that Umno did not need leaders who wanted to fill their stomach, fight for posts and also power.

Syed Ali said the Federal Territory Umno was prepared to face the general election if it was to be held in November this year.
