PUTRAJAYA, Aug 12 (Bernama) - Thirty orphans from Rumah Anak Yatim Penyayang Bestari, Banting, Selangor were today taken shopping for Aidilfitri goodies by the Prime Minister's Office 1Malaysia Volunteer members.

Chief coordinator, Mohd Samsi Kamarudin said the programme was to share the joy with orphans via contribution by 70 employees of the prime minister's office.

"It is to help the orphans by purchasing Aidilfitri clothes as they require lot of money," he told reporters at the presentation of contributions Sunday.

Also present was Private Secretary to the Prime Minister, Datuk Mohd Po'ad Jelani.

The Prime Minister's Office 1Malaysia Volunteer members had undertaken programmes such as cleaning up mosques and helping flood victims.
