KOTA BELUD, Aug 12 (Bernama) -- Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Mohd Shafie Apdal said Umno does not use religion or the constitution for its political interests.

He said the opposition parties, on the other hand, used religion for politics to win the people's hearts and accused those who did not support them as unIslamic.

"Umno has never used religion for political interests. Instead, we use the power that we have to uplift Islam, while the non-Muslims are free to practise their own religious beliefs," he said at a breaking of fast and presentation of aid to the poor and orphans at the Kota Belud Mosque here Sunday.
