KOTA BAHARU, Aug 12 (Bernama) -- University students in the country have been urged not to be easily influenced by propaganda spread by certain groups to stoke hatred against the government.

The Prime Minister's political secretary Datuk Fatmi Che Salleh said university students were target of certain political parties and they should be wary of such groups disseminating their agenda.

"I am advising undergraduates especially those who have just registered to be careful and on guard against being deviated from their actual objective to seek knowledge," he said.

Fatmi, who is also the Kota Baharu Umno chief, was speaking at a presentation of National Higher Education Fund Corporation (PTPTN) advance loan payments for the Kota Baharu Parliamentary constituency at Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan (SMK) Tanjung Chat here Sunday.
