KOTA KINABALU, Aug 14 (Bernama) -- The move by certain Barisan Nasional (BN) component party leaders to join the opposition does not affect BN's preparation for the general election.

Puteri Umno chief Datuk Rosnah Abdul Rashid Shirlin said Sabahans must evaluate wisely the transparency and concern of the BN government, especially in setting up a Royal Commission of Inquiry (RCI) to tackle illegal immigrants.

"We are confident the struggles of Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak and the state leadership headed by Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman will lead to winning seats held by the opposition," she said.

She was commenting on the action of leaders from United Pasokmomogun Kadazandusun Organisation (Upko) and Umno in leaving the BN coalition, at a lambuk porridge ceremony, in conjunction with RTM's 'Independence Raya Tour' at the information communication and culture ministry's Integrated Complex here Tuesday.

Rosnah, who is also Deputy Health Minister said the setting up of the RCI with a term of reference (TOR) proved that the existing government understood the wants and aspirations of the people in the state.
