JERLUN, Aug 15 (Bernama) -- Beginning August, the Umno information programme will be held at the polling district centres as the final preparation to face the upcoming general election.

Umno information chief Datuk Ahmad Maslan said the programme which would replace the "People's Champion" programme previously, would be held in every division, almost daily.

"We have about 7,000 polling district centres throughout the country. Their secretariats are the divisional information chiefs," he told reporters after the 'Sahur Perdana' gathering in Kerpan, near here, this morning.

Also present were Kedah Umno Liaison Committee deputy chairman Datuk Mukhriz Tun Dr Mahathir, who is also Jerlun Member of Parliament, Jerlun Umno division head Datuk Abu Hassan Shariff and Kedah Umno liaison secretary Datuk Othman Aziz.

Ahmad, who is also Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Department, said the campaign was needed in order to explain the government's efforts to provide services to Malaysians including the various assistance provided.
