SEPANG, Aug 16 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Abdul Razak returned home today after attending the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) extraordinary summit meeting in Mecca.

The plane carrying Najib and his wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor arrived at the KL International Airport at 11.25pm.

The Prime Minister had headed the Malaysian delegation to the summit which was called by Saudi Arabia's King Abdullah Abdul Aziz Al Saud.

The summit passed three important resolutions, all of which were supported by Malaysia.

They were suspending the membership of Syria in the OIC, giving recognition to Palestine as a sovereign state and championing the cause of Rohingya Muslims in Myanmar.
