KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 19 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak thanked the guests who attended the Aidilfitri open house hosted by himself and the Cabinet ministers, saying he was touched by the turn out.

He expressed his appreciation to the more than 100,000 people who thronged his residence at Seri Perdana, Putrajaya to meet and greet the country's leaders on the festive occasion.

"Many thanks to all who attended the Cabinet Open house today. I am overwhelmed by the warmth of the people who came in such big numbers," he twitted about 8.40 pm Sunday night.

Although the open house was scheduled for 10.30 am, people had started queuing up at the venue as early as 9 am.

Also present were Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin and wife, Puan Sri Noorainee Abdul Rahman, and Information Communication and Culture Minister Datuk Seri Dr Rais Yatim.
