PUTRAJAYA, Aug 25 (Bernama) -- Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi is all praise for his successor, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's leadership and the implementation of various transformation programmes to take Malaysia to greater heights.

The former prime minister said the initiation of various transformation programmes such as Government Transformation Programme, Economic Transformation Programme and Political Transformation Programme, were proof of Najib's commitment in developing the country.

"Najib is committed and works very hard. The people have seen and heard of his reforms and transformation policies for the country which benefit them. This is very good," he told reporters during his Hari Raya open house at Dewan Sri Endon in Precinct 10 here Saturday.

Abdullah was accompanied by his wife, Tun Jeanne Abdullah.

Also present at the open house were Najib, Deputy Prime Minister Muhyiddin Yassin and wife, Puan Sri Noorainee Abdul Rahman, and Melaka Chief Minister Mohd Ali Rustam.

On who would contest the Kepala Batas seat currently held by Abdullah, he said the matter should be referred to the prime minister.
