TAWAU, Sept 8 (Bernama) - Umno members and leaders at all levels have been reminded not to regard the coming general election as 'harvest season' as it will be tough.

Vice-president Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi said they must work hard and not wait for the 'fruits of harvest' (allocation) to arrive to get things done.

"The Umno and Barisan Nasional election machinery must be on alert at all times. The central polling districts and operations rooms must be open now," he said after opening Kalabakan Umno Division, Youth, Wanita and Puteri delegates meeting at Tawau community hall here Saturday.

Also present were Kalabakan Umno chief Datuk Abdul Ghapur Salleh and Tawau Umno chief Datuk Tawfiq Abu Bakar Titingan.

Zahid urged Umno members to 'harvest' the votes lost during 2008 general election so that they return to lend their support to BN.
