SEPANG, Sept 8 (Bernama) -- Members of other Barisan Nasional (BN) component parties can also adopt Umno's principle to sack party members or leaders who sabotage BN candidates in the coming general election.

Umno vice-president Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein said the stand has to be taken to ensure loyalty and sincerity of BN members and also to ensure it remains in power.

"If Umno can make such a stand, there is no reason why other BN component parties can't," he told a media conference after opening Sepang Umno division delegates meeting here Saturday.

He said this in response to a warning by Deputy Prime Minister and Umno deputy president Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin that Umno leaders and members would be sacked if they sabotage the party's general election candidates.

Hishammuddin who is also Home Minister, said he supported the move to rid 'double standards' in the party.
