JITRA, Sept 8 (Bernama) -- Terengganu Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Ahmad Said urged all Umno members to refrain from being vindictive and remain united in gaining the trust of fence-sitters in the next general election.

Members would have to contemplate to regain the party's strength, he told reporters after opening the delegates meetings of the Kubang Pasu Umno Division Wanita Umno, Umno Youth and Puteri Umno, here Saturday.

Ahmad, who is a member of the Umno Supreme Council, also urged party members to support the party's candidates who were chosen by the party leadership for the general election.

Earlier, in his speech, he called on Umno members not to put their personal interests above the party's struggle for the Malays.
