BUTTERWORTH, Sept 9 (Bernama) - Bagan Umno division is confident that Barisan Nasional (BN) can win Bagan parliamentary and the three state seats as the people's support for BN is rising.

Division chief Datuk Abdul Latif Mirasa said the support could be seen by BN functions which had attracted the attention of the Chinese community in Bagan.

"Most notably when the Deputy Prime Minister (Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin) visited Bagan recently and was welcomed by a large Chinese community.

"Functions organised by BN received positive reaction from various races. I believe that we can win all four seats in Bagan," he told reporters when met after Bagan Umno division delegates meeting here Saturday night.

The meeting was opened by Umno Supreme Council member Datuk Abdul Azeez Abdul Rahim who is also president of Kelab Putera 1Malaysia.
