KANGAR, Sept 9 (Bernama) -- The people should retain in power the Barisan Nasional (BN) government, which has a proven track record as a capable and efficient administrator, for the sake of the country's future and their own, said Perlis Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Dr Md Isa Sabu.

As such, he said, Malaysians who loved their country should not take the risk of giving their support to the opposition.

"To lose power means we are not able to do anything and we will lose everything that we have enjoyed," he said when launching the Merdeka Raya programme organised by the Kayangan Indah Rukun Tetangga in Taman Bukit Kayangan near here Saturday night.

Md Isa, who is the assemblyman for Bintong, said development projects were carried out for the people's benefit, including the proposed river diversion project in Bintong which was aimed at alleviating floods in the area.

Unfortunately, some residents opposed the project, saying its implementation would be a waste as the project would not effectively control floods in the area, he added.
