KOTA KINABALU, Sept 11 (Bernama) -- Sabah Umno members have a big responsibility on their shoulder in the 13th general election as they are considered Barisan Nasional's (BN) "fixed deposit", said Umno Supreme Council member Datuk Raja Nong Chik Raja Zainal Abidin.

He called on the people of Sabah to reject the opposition who resorted to populist tactics by making promises that could never be fulfilled.

"Do not take your responsibility in the next general election for granted," he said when opening the Penampang Umno division delegates' meeting here last night.

Raja Nong Cik, who is also federal territories and urban well-being minister, said the opposition's struggle was not based on policy, but rather slander and distortion of facts to mislead the people.

"Whatever the Barisan Nasional government does, they will cast aspersion, find faults with or condemn. Of late, they are getting increasingly extreme by resorting to shameful acts like stomping on pictures and exposing buttocks.
