ALOR SETAR, Sept 12 (Bernama) -- Kedah Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Azizan Abdul Razak said the state legislative assembly could be dissolved and the state election held at any time if the political situation was favourable for PAS.

"It depends, if we feel the situation is favourable for us we can even dissolve it now," he told reporters after chairing the weekly state executive committee meeting here Wednesday.

Azizan who is also Kedah PAS commissioner, said the distribution of seats among PAS, Parti Keadilan Rakyat (PKR) and DAP was about 90 per cent finalised.

He said the state PAS would give priority to local party members to contest in the election but 'imported' candidates who had the quality would also be considered if PAS' Syura Council approved.
