KOTA BAHARU, Sept 14 (Bernama) - Kelantan people must not forget the good deeds and contributions made by the Barisan Nasional (BN) federal government.

Kelantan Umno chairman Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamed said despite being ruled by PAS for over 20 years, Kelantan was not neglected and received annual aid for development.

"Let us not forget the good deeds by Barisan Nasional. Don't be ungrateful because via education, the Malays, Chinese and Indians receive scholarship.

"Don't belittle the contributions and changes that occurred. Siti Khadijah Market costing over RM8 million was built by BN, not PAS," he said when opening Kota Baharu Umno delegates meeting here.

The meeting opened by Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin was attended by his wife, Puan Sri Norainee Abdul Rahman, Deputy Finance Minister Datuk Dr Awang Adek Hussin and Political Secretary to the Prime Minister, Datuk Mohd Fatmi Che Salleh, who is also Kota Baharu Umno division chief.
