DUNGUN, Sept 15 (Bernama) -- Umno members should emulate the fighting spirit of national sports personalities as demonstrated by cyclist Azizulhasni Awang and badminton player Datuk Lee Chong Wei, said Umno Supreme Council member, Datuk Seri Ahmad Shabery Cheek.

He said in a world championship not too long ago, the cyclist completed the race and won the third place in pain after being pierced by a wooden splinter on his leg.

He said Chong Wei sustained injuries before the Olympic Games in London but continued to push himself to the final before losing narrowly to Lin Dan.

"This spirit of perseverance could also be imbued into Umno's political struggle for better results.

"Political struggle does not know what is tiredness as it involved a lot of hardwork to ensure Umno continued to be the party which obtained the mandate," he said.

He told this to reporters after opening the Dungun Umno division delegates meeting here Saturday.
