KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 15 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin said today the various issues unresolved by the PKR-led government in Selangor were reason enough for the Barisan Nasional (BN) to recapture the state in the next general election.

Muhyiddin, who is also Umno deputy president, said the water, Talam and sand issues reflected the shortcomings and inability in the administration of the state by the opposition government.

"I feel that what is happening in the state has touched the emotions of the people of Selangor and also the people of Malaysia as a whole," he said when opening the Selayang Umno Division delegates meeting, here.

He said he was able to garner from the several visits to the ground that there were indications the people wanted a return of the BN government in the state.

"People have been asking me when the elections will be held. They said they cannot bear it any longer and want to support the BN in the elections," he said, adding that the trend was similar in Kedah, ruled by a PAS-led government.
