SHAH ALAM, Sept 15 (Bernama) -- Umno and Barisan Nasional (BN) members and leaders must ward off subtle campaigns by the opposition who tells voters not to give a big win to BN in the coming general election.

Umno and Barisan Nasional (BN) secretary-general Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor said the campaign which was made at the general election in 2008 had caused the popularity of BN to drop.

Tengku Adnan said this in his speech at the Kapar division delegates meeting, here, Saturday.

He said such campaigns were extremely dangerous to BN, and the Youth and Puteri wings, must play their roles to approach youths to deflect the campaign.

Tengku Adnan also said Umno and BN members must have confidence that BN could win this time including in Kapar Parliament which had 140,000 voters.
