JOHOR BAHRU, Sept 16 (Bernama) -- The MIC believes Indian voters will help Barisan Nasional (BN) win more seats in the coming 13th general election (GE), said party vice-president Datuk M. Saravanan.

He said the Indian community was generally more confident with the approach and changes made by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, including in opposition-led states.

"The Indians are touched by the various approaches brought by Najib," he told reporters after launching a literature programme organised by the Johor Tamil Literature Association here Sunday.

Saravanan, who is also federal territories and urban wellbeing deputy minister, expressed confidence that party candidates were capable of winning state seats in Johor.
