WARSAW (Poland), Sept 19 (Bernama) -- Perlis still has a lot to offer to local and foreign tourists alike, not only in terms of its natural wonders, but also delicious traditional cuisines, Raja Muda of Perlis Tuanku Syed Faizuddin Putra Jamalullail said.

As such, he said campaigns to promote Perlis traditional food abroad would be held continuously as it was clearly one of the most effective methods to promote Perlis to the world.

Prior to this, he said such a campaign had also been held in China, Australia, Japan, Indonesia, London and New Zealand.

Apart from getting the opportunity to taste Perlis' traditional food during the promotional campaign, members of the public will also get the chance to learn about various tourist products and interesting destinations available in Perlis through the pamphlets, he said when launching Perlis' food promotion here Tuesday night.

Present were Raja Puan Muda of Perlis Tuanku Hajah Lailatul Shahreen Akashah Khalil and Malaysian Ambassador to Poland Datuk Jamaluddin Sabeh.

Various traditional dishes from Perlis were served at the event, which was held at Sheraton Warsaw Hotel, including 'nasi goreng' (fried rice), 'bihun goreng' (fried vermicelli) and sate.
