September 20, 2012

KOTA KINABALU, Sept 20 (Bernama) -- Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman has assured residents in Beaufort that the Barisan Nasional (BN) would continue to strive for their wellbeing despite the current political hitch in the constituency.

Musa, who is also the Barisan Nasional (BN) state chairman, however hoped the people would maintain their support for the government by ensuring a repeat victory in the general election.

The Beaufort parliamentary seat is presently being held by former Umno Supreme Council member Datuk Seri Lajim Ukin who recently switched to the opposition.

"Leaders come and go. We do not stay in the position forever. But don't worry or feel disappointed, we already have a replacement," he said at a Merdeka Raya open house for the Beaufort parliamentary constituency held at Dewan SESB, here yesterday.
