KOTA KINABALU, Sept 23 (Bernama) -- Parti Bersatu Sabah (PBS) president, Tan Sri Joseph Pairin Kitingan said that Barisan Nasional's (BN) concern for Sabah under Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak's leadership was increasingly accepted by the people with the resolution of various issues.

He was referring to the establishment of the Royal Commission of Inquiry to handle illegal immigrants, locals helming Federal departments in the state and the recognition of Sept 16 as Malaysia Day.

"All these are prove that the BN government led by the Prime Minister always listens, cares and works to fulfill every request by the people," he said while opening the Inanam PBS annual general meeting , which was attended by about 1,000 members at the Menggatal Community Hall, in Inanam near here Sunday.

Pairin, who is also deputy chief minister, urged the party members to continue giving solid support to PBS and BN.

"We also need to spread this spirit of support to our younger generations as they are our future leaders.

Our support for BN must be undivided as they've brought a great deal of development and progress to us," he said.
