KUALA LUMPUR, Sept 24 (Bernama) -- Gerakan Youth has urged the party to field new faces, especially those from the wing in the 13th general election.

Its chief, Datuk Lim Si Pin said it would be wise for the party to bank on candidates below 40 and definitely those from Gerakan Youth would certainly be committed if selected.

"Hence, Gerakan Youth hopes the candidates selected should be new faces and competitive in pursuing the party's struggle," he told reporters at Menara PGRM here Monday.

On the Gerakan national delegates' conference on Saturday and Sunday, he said among motions that would be tabled were the Malaysia Education Blueprint, the rare earth project and the general election strategy.

Lim said the conference would be opened to the public, particularly students as observers.
