KEPALA BATAS, Oct 12 (Bernama) -- The people, especially PAS members have been urged to evaluate the statement by national laureate Prof Emeritus Datuk Dr Shahnnon Ahmad who questioned the party's political struggle.

Former prime minister Tun Abdullah Ahmad said here today, the statement by Shahnnon followed his frustration with PAS which has strayed from the party 's original struggle.

"Everyone present saw and heard what he (Shahnnon) said and the people especially PAS members must think about it," he told reporters after "Jom P Bantu" walkabout programme organised by Penang Regional Development Authority (Perda).

Abdullah was commenting on the statement by Shahnnon that the PAS political struggle no longer meet Islamic requirements after the party cooperated with the DAP.

Shahnnon said PAS action to follow the DAP is against Islamic requirements because PAS should take the lead in championing Islam.
