KUNDASANG, Oct 14 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said that he was not worried about the future of Barisan Nasional (BN) in Ranau as he was confident that the people in the parliamentary constituency would continue giving their undivided support to BN in the next general election.

"I know I can sleep peacefully tonight, not because of the cool breeze, but because of the strong support from the people here, " he said at the leader-meets-people event at the Kinabalu National Park here.

Present were his wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman and Deputy Chief Minister Tan Sri Joseph Pairin Kitingan.

Najib also concurred with Karanaan and Paginatan state assemblymen Datuk Masidi Manjun's and Datuk Ewon Ebin's statements that the people of Ranau sincerely supported the BN.

"If the election were to be held tomorrow, BN would surely win because the support of the people here is as high as Mount Kinabalu," Najib said.

Earlier, the prime minister also attended a closed-door meeting with BN Sabah leaders.

Sunday, he is scheduled to flag off participants of the 26th Mount Kinabalu International Climbathon here at 7am before making a walkabout in Kundasang town enroute to Kudat.
