KOTA KINABALU, Sept 29 (Bernama) -- The nationwide Jelajah Wanita Barisan Nasional (BN) programme started in Beaufort here Saturday.

Wanita BN chairman Datuk Seri Shahrizat Abdul Jalil said the programme would ensure attention was given to the needs of the multi-racial community in the country.

She said the programme themed "Salam Sayang Wanita" would make sure the Wanita BN machinery was prepared to help BN win and form the government after the upcoming 13th general election.

"Today's programme starts in Beaufort and then we are off to Sarawak, then later to the Peninsular.

"Wanita BN chiefs and I will continue this tour around Malaysia as a family and team to determine what the people need," she told a news conference after launching the programme.

Shahrizat said the team would also inform the public on the importance and benefits of the 2013 Budget tabled by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak at the Dewan Rakyat Friday.
