KANGAR, Nov 3 (Bernama) -- The Raja Muda of Perlis, Tuanku Syed Faizuddin Putra Jamalullail has called on religious leaders to eliminate prejudice of race and religion to foster unity, understanding and harmony nationwide.

He said, they should also avoid anything that could raise tension and hostility amongst the various races and religions.

He was speaking at the opening of the 2012 Gerbang Muhibah Antara Agama in Mata Ayer here.

The programme, aimed at bringing together the leaders of various religions, was organised by the Perlis Al Islah Association, together with the Malay Custom Council (Maips).

Tuanku Syed Faizuddin, who is also Maips president, said that harmony would prevail if the people did not interfere with each other's internal affairs and respected the sensitivities of other races and religions.

He urged the people to be united and love the country and state, by fostering the spirit of loyalty and patriotism.

Also present at the ceremony were the Raja Puan Muda Perlis, Tuanku Hajah Lailatul Shahreen Akashah Khalil.
