KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 7 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today congratulated Barack Obama on his re-election as the president of the United States.

"In his winning this historic election, the President has a unique opportunity to realise his vision for the United States," Najib said in a statement issued here Wednesday.

Najib said he hoped that Obama would continue his efforts to foster understanding and respect between the United States and Muslims all around the world.

"Many Malaysians enthusiastically followed the presidential election campaign - and as a moderate Muslim nation, Malaysia stands ready to help the United States as it seeks to better engage with those of the Islamic faith," he added.

Najib said he had the honour of meeting Obama during his first term as president and "we vowed to develop the growing partnership between our nations".

The relationship had strengthened and I hope that it would continue to do so in future years so that we could maintain regional peace, stability and prosperity for the people, he added.
