KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 8 (Bernama) -- The MIC will hold its Deepavali open house at the Batu Caves Temple from 9am to 1pm on Nov 13.

Its president Datuk Seri G. Palanivel said the open house would be held at an open area in the vicinity of the temple.

By having it there, he added the party expect to attract more than 15,000 people, not only from the Indian community but also the Chinese and Malay communities.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak, Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, Cabinet ministers, political party leaders as well as diplomats are scheduled to attend the open house.

"The decision by MIC to hold the open house in Batu Caves since last year was apt because the place was a popular location for people to visit. It's full of merriment. When we choose the right place, more people will be able to come," the Minister in the Prime Minister's Department told reporters at his office here today.
