KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 9 (Bernama) - PAS will line up about 40 percent candidates under 40 years-old to contest for parliamentary and state seats at 13th general election.

Youth secretary Khairul Faizi Ahmad Kamil said the decision to field young candidates was to tap talent and give more space to the new generation in Malaysian politics.

"We will promote the potential candidates at 53rd PAS Youth annual delegates conference on Nov 14-15 in Kota Bharu, Kelantan," he told reporters here Friday.

Khairul Faizi said 58th PAS annual delegates conference will be held on Nov 16-18 in Pengkalan Chepa, Kelantan.

On Sept 1, the opposition leader Datuk Seri Anwar Ibrahim announced the opposition had agreed on the distribution of seats to be contested at the general election.
