KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 11 (Bernama) -- Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak enlivened the Deepavali Bazaar in Jalan Masjid India here with his visit Saturday night.

The prime minister toured the bazaar which was made up of 70 stalls selling textile, clothes, jewellery and a variety of other goods.

Najib and his entourage were greeted to the beats of the Indian drums, kompang and lion dance upon his arrival at 8.30 pm.

He was accompanied by Federal Territories and Urban Well-being Minister Datuk Raja Nong Chik Raja Zainal Abidin, Deputy Federal Territories and Urban Well-being Minister Datuk M Saravanan, Kuala Lumpur mayor Datuk Ahmad Phesal Talib, and MIC Youth chief T.Mohan.

Najib later presented contributions to 30 orphans from Rumah Kebajikan Anbu Illam and Rumah Kebajikan Karunai Illam.

The prime minister and his entourage were entertained by local artists while having their dinner.

He sampled a host of traditional Indian delicacies such as thosai and muruku.

Najib's presence brought joy to traders and about 300 revellers, who braved the rain to wait for him.

The Indian community is celebrating Deepavali on Tuesday.
