TAWAU, Oct 20 (Bernama) -- Information Department Director-General Datuk Ibrahim Abdul Rahman said the agency is geared up and ready to face the 13th general election at anytime.

He said the preparation in terms of physical and mental state of the officers and staff to carry out their role in the field as well as in terms of logistics were ready for mobilisation as soon as the government dissolved parliament.

"I am glad to say that the department has been ready for so long and now we are carrying out maintenance works to ensure that our system can be mobilised whenever necessary," he told reporters after attending a meeting with the Sabah Information Department staff.

On the Media Centre for journalists on duty during the coming general election, Ibrahim said every state information office would provide facilities such as computers and telecommunication facilities for the convenience of the journalists in carrying out their work.
