PEKAN, Oct 24 (Bernama) -- Sultan of Pahang Sultan Ahmad Shah today called on the people to appreciate the peace and political stability in the country.

He said nothing was more valuable than the peace and wellbeing enjoyed by Malaysians since independence, especially for a nation of various races and religions.

"I would like to remind all levels of society to adapt themselves to all challenges in this globalised world, and at the same time, practice good values in our daily lives to foster respect among each other," he said.

Sultan Ahmad Shah said this at an investiture held in conjunction with his 82nd birthday, at the Istana Abu Bakar, here Wednesday.

Gracing the event were the Sultanah of Pahang Sultanah Kalsom, Tengku Mahkota Pahang Tengku Abdullah and the Tengku Puan Pahang Tunku Azizah Aminah Maimunah Iskandariah Sultan Iskandar. Also present was Pahang Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Adnan Yaakob.
