KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 10 (Bernama) -- The government is always prepared to help the Indian community with documentation cases such as applications for citizenships, birth certificates and identity cards, said Human Resource Minister Datuk Seri Dr S. Subramaniam.

He said this was the government's commitment to help the community upon realising they faced citizenship problems after the launch of the MyDaftar programme in 85 locations nationwide, two years ago.

A total of 9,500 applications have been received, of which 6,400 have been given citizenship status so far, he said, adding that more cases were being received.

"We're still prepared to assist anytime and even locate hospital documents to verify the applicants' birth place," said Dr Subramaniam at a press conference on the 1Malaysia MySihat Indian programme, at Wisma PERKESO here Monday.

Sunday, Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak dismissed allegations that there were 300,000 Indians without citizenships or identity cards as opposition lies meant to influence the people to hate the government.
