KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 11 (Bernama) -- The soon-to-be-released biography of the prime minister's wife, Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor is the most appropriate avenue for the latter to rebut wild accusations thrown against her, former prime minister Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad said.

He said Rosmah had the right to make corrections to all negative issues concerning her by certain irresponsible quarters.

"She (Rosmah) is not going high profile. Only those people made her a high profile figure by all sorts of accusations and she has the right to reply.

"Although she is the Prime Minister's wife, it does not mean that she has to keep quiet to all sorts of accusations," Dr Mahathir told reporters after witnessing the RM63 million Assets and Technologies Acquisition Agreement signing ceremony between Proton Holdings Bhd and Petronas Bhd, here today.

On Monday, the pre-launch of the biography was officiated by the Sultan of Pahang, Sultan Ahmad Shah who was accompanied by the Sultanah of Pahang, Sultanah Kalsom and Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.
